

LOCALS.

—Rev. Fr. Louis Choron, O. S. B., left for France on January 21.

—A day school will be opened at the Mission, February 4th. Deo Gratias.

—The pupils of St. Mary's academy were transferred to Shawnee till other provisions can be made.

—The sunshiny virtues of cheerfulness, courage and hope, need to be cultivated just now at Sacred Heart Mission.

—Are we keeping our new leaf turned over in this new century? Prayer and the sacraments will help you, friends.

—Rev. Fr. Constantine, of El Reno, came to view the ruins of his old abode, on his return home he was accompanied by Rev. Fr. Clement.

—We received very interesting items from Tecumseh and Shawnee—we regret exceedingly not to be able to put them in print—they were like the rest reduced to ashes.

—Mr. Auguste Zoeller moved into his new residence, which by the way, is a very comfortable one. Mr. Zoeller is a prosperous merchant. His brother, Frank, is one of our clerics.

—Rt. Rev. Fr. Abbot Felix DeGrasse and Rev. Fr. Hilary Cassal have returned from their respective trips, Europe and Wisconsin. They looked for the Mission, but in vain—she is no more.

—The report of the statistician of the department of agriculture for December shows that in the number of pounds of lint cotton to the acre Oklahoma led the United States, with the Indian Territory a close second and Missouri third. The record for Oklahoma was 318 pounds, Indian Territory, 289 pounds; and Missouri, 275 pounds.